

Call for Papers – QUALICO 2016

Trier, Germany, August 24-28

Contributions on all aspects of quantitative linguistics and text analysis are welcome. We particularly encourage submissions on

- descriptions of all aspects of language and text phenomena, including psycholinguistics, sociolinguistics, dialectology, pragmatics, language typology, usage based approaches, etc., as far as they use quantitative mathematical methods (probability theory, stochastic processes, differential and difference equations, fuzzy logics and set theory, function theory, etc.).
- Applications of methods, models, or findings from quantitative linguistics to problems of natural language processing, text classification, stylistics, authorship attribution, machine translation, language teaching, information retrieval, language complexity and complex network analysis.
- Methodological problems of linguistic measurement, model construction, sampling and test theory.
- Epistemological issues such as explanation of language and text phenomena, contributions to theory construction, systems theory, philosophy of science.

Presentations should be in English. Each paper will be allotted 30 minutes (20 minutes presentation + 10 minutes discussion). There will also be a poster session.

Abstracts in English not exceeding 500 words should be submitted not later than November 30, 2015.

The submission of your abstract is possible only via the electronic Conference Manager:

<https://easychair.org/conferences/?conf=qualico2016>

Opening this page, you will be requested to enter a user name and a password to enter the site. If you do not have an EasyChair account, enter the following URL to obtain one.:

<https://www.easychair.org/account/signup.cgi>

Your account access information will be emailed to you. After having logged into the system, you will be asked to submit your address for correspondence, specify all author(s) - you may simply add yourself, provide the title of the abstract in plain text, specify at least two keywords, select the topic relevant to your paper, upload the abstract as PDF file with the full abstract, including title, name, email and correspondence address (do not chose "Abstract only")

The contact author of the paper will receive an auto-generated notification of receipt via email.

Registration goes automatically along with abstract submissions. Registrations may eventually be cancelled until February 15, 2016, at the latest.
